MAMELODI SUNDOWNS

CAF WOMEN'S CHAMPIONS LEAGUE
COSAFU QUALIFIERS 2023

WHO ARE THEY?

Mamelodi Sundowns Ladies will be back for a third year in a row at the CAF Women's Champions League | COSAFA Qualifiers having lifted the inaugural trophy in barnstorming fashion in 2021.

From there they went on to claim the continental crown after winning the 2021 CAF Women's Champions League that was played in Egypt, becoming the first team to take that title too.

They reached the final of the regional qualifiers again in 2022, but this time lost on penalties to Green Buffaloes of Zambia following a goalless draw.

So statistically they have yet to lose a game in the competition outright and will be among the favourites again having defended their South African domestic championship and will no doubt be the team to beat in Durban.

They have been drawn in Group B with Olympic de Moroni from Comoros, Costa do Sol, who they beat 8-1 in the pool stages last year, and Young Buffaloes from Eswatini.

Melinda Kgadiete is the leading scorer for the team with eight goals across two finals competitions and she will be looking to add to that number again in 2023.

They are led again by long-serving coach Jerry Tshabalala and he has a squad packed with players who have experience at international level, including at the 2023 FIFA Women's World Cup with South Africa.
